Press release

Mainstream welcomes Andy Harrison as CEO, Fund Services Australia

Highlights

- › Highly experienced CEO Andy Harrison joins Mainstream to run Australian Fund Services business

Mainstream Fund Services is pleased to welcome Andy Harrison as Chief Executive Officer, Australia.

Andy will lead Mainstream's Australian Fund Services operations, focusing on enhancing service delivery to existing clients and further expanding Mainstream's presence in fund services.

Andy has over 16 years of experience in outsourcing, custody, fund accounting, registry (transfer agency), investment operations and middle and back office solutions for fund managers.

Prior to joining Mainstream, Andy was CEO of Link Fund Solutions (formerly White Outsourcing). From March 2009 to December 2010, Andy was a Non-Executive Director of HUB24 (ASX:HUB). Prior to working in Australia, Andy worked in the UK with Jupiter Asset Management.

As part of its global operating model, Mainstream has a regional CEO in its three key regions of the Americas, Asia-Pacific and Europe/Cayman to manage local operations and growth.

Former CEO of Mainstream Fund Services, Australia, Nick Happell, has assumed the role of Chief Executive Officer, Asia-Pacific, which was previously held by Group CEO Martin Smith. Martin has relinquished that role to focus on his Group CEO responsibilities and Mainstream's key clients. Nick will continue to be based in Sydney with his new regional role.
